

CHICAGO scene

ENTERTAINMENT scene

Think reality TV is the only way to prove your stamina, test your digestive system and conquer your fears? Think again. City Chase, The World's Largest Urban Adventure Series is bringing back its building-rappelling, snake-slithering, Sudoku-solving, endurance-testing experience to Chicago at 8 am on Saturday, August 23. This part obstacle course/part scavenger hunt adventure starts with teams of two receiving a clue sheet detailing ChasePoints, a variety of physical, intellectual and humorous challenges in unknown locations throughout the city and a CTA transit pass. Teams can call family and friends for help, access the Internet with Palm Centro Smartphones and even get the help of complete strangers. To win participants must complete 10 ChasePoints and cross the finish line first. The winning team will compete in an epic National Championship adventure to be held in a secret location. The victors will represent "Team USA" at the 2008 World Championships in November in Marakesh, Morocco. While on a one-day tour to self-discovery, individuals will have the opportunity to complete ChasePoints that benefit local charities. For more information and to pre-register visit Citychase.com.

Celebrating 20 years, The iViva! Chicago Latin Music Festival runs from Saturday, August 23 to Sunday, August 24 in Grant Park. This vibrant Latin music festival showcases local, national and international talent in the various Latin music genres, including salsa, reggaeton, mariachi, norteña and Spanish pop. This festival truly inspires you to dance. Groups scheduled to perform include Malo featuring Jorge Santana, Don Tetto, Yamil-El Orgullo de Mexico, Don Omar, Fobia, Everardo Rey y su Flota Musical, Menudo, and Mike Roman & The Tell Stars. In addition to great music, traditional foods will be available. Local and international merchants will sell authentic wares from the indigenous people of the Americas including artistic tapestries. Other items include wool clothing, artwork and jewelry. Meet some of Chicago's very own musicians at the Side Stage while taking in a lowrider car show. Daily hours are from 10:30 am to 9:30 pm and admission is free. For more information, please contact the Mayor's Office of Special Events Hotline at 312.744.3370 or online at Vivachicago.us.

Those looking to meet and network with other successful young professionals can attend Windy City Social's Power Networking event at The Metropolitan Club (233 S. Wacker, 312.876.3200) on Wednesday, August 27 from 6 to 9 pm. Make new business contacts, learn about products and services that