Okay, Amazing Race fans. Time to get off the couch! Here's your chance to finally put your endurance, strength and detective skills to work. City Chase is a 4-6 hour urban contest that pits teams of two in a race to find ChasePoints around Chicago and make it to the finish line first. Seriously, put your heart and soul into it, because the winners will qualify for the city chase World Championships in Rome. Sure, it's $150, but isn't that a small price to pay when it comes to fulfilling a television-fueled dream? Register at www.chicagosocial.com.
